November 2016

Oh what a night.....

Thanks to all those that came along to the Christmas Market last week. A good time seemed to be had by all. We had some lovely stalls and some amazing cakes. The children seemed to be having lots of fun spending their pocket money (and some of mum's to)

We were delighted to raise over £1500 so a big thank you to those who came along, baked cakes, sold raffle tickets, donated bottles and those that helped on the night.

Merry Christmas from all the PTFA Elves

Save the date – Ongar Place Pamper Evening Friday 10th February

It's time to party

The Christmas Disco's will take place on Friday 16th December

Look out for tickets going on sale soon.

This is great fun for the children to come along and party with classmates. They will get a bag of sweets and can dance the night away.

Quiz Night part 1 – January 20th

Start planning your teams now as tickets will go on sale for the first of our 2 quiz nights in 2017 when we return from the Christmas Break.

As usual it will be a fun event with a fish and chip supper. Make up a team with your fellow parents or friends and family.

Which team will win this first quiz and will they be able to win part 2 later in the year ????
