Our Learning Journey

Maple class have enjoyed writing some excellent descriptions of Sirius Black, from our Harry Potter book, this week. They used thesauruses to find some interesting alternative adjectives.

We conducted several investigations to find evidence of air all around us in science.

Starting rugby in PE was fun!

Focus on Learning

Next week in maths we shall start to add and subtract numbers using columnar addition and subtraction.

In English we shall be using our descriptive writing skills to create effective settings.

Star Learners
